“ To Family and Friends of Ray, I shall miss a very dear and cherished neighbor.I have know Ray since I was a youngster and had so much respect for him.We often called his store as children the "Little Store"instead of Head's Superette.He was so highly thought of in our community and I shall and do so now miss him.I have years in the evening looked out my window and see his US Flag proudly blowing in the wind. I hope his little companion dog is going to be in the hands of his loved ones as well as Buddy.
Just want you to know I hold you all close in my heart and pray God keeps you close at hand.
Will miss you Ray/

“ Loved the guy. A great Walhalla citizen and military veteran. Always friendly and willing to help anyone. Great memories, not so many years ago, of him and Glenn Towe turning the little storefront building next to Ray's home into the temporary National HQ for the National Combat Infantryman's Association - at the time Ray was the National Commander and Glenn was the Adjutant. Lots of work on their part to rebuild the organization - a great feat and lesson in dedication. "Carry on" my friend. Joe Rawl
