

Mr. Raymond Hayden Prosser

October 16, 1962 - October 8, 2015

Raymond Hayden Prosser, 52, went to be with the Lord on October 8, 2015. He was the husband of Karen Prosser. They shared sixteen years of marriage together.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, he was the son of Hayden "Ray" and Jean Prosser of Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. He graduated from Eastern Carolina University and owned and operated a residential construction business, Prosser Construction Inc.

He was a member of Salem First Baptist Church in Salem, South Carolina, where he actively served as a deacon. He most enjoyed being with his wife, family and grandchildren. His passions included God, building with his hands, boating, fishing and baseball. Ray was a man's man. His hands were as strong as a two-by-four but his heart was a mirrored image of God's love, mercy and grace.

Ray is survived by his wife, Karen, parents Hayden and Jean, sister Pam McCracken, brother Paul (Peg) Prosser, son Terry (Sarah) Hinton, son Billy (Petra) Hinton, son Joel (Sara) Hinton, grandchildren Abigail, Berlin, Samantha, Vienna and Jacqueline Hinton, nieces Mallory McCracken and Zoey Prosser and nephew Paxton Prosser.

The memorial service will be held on Sunday, October 11, 2015 at 4 p.m. at Salem First Baptist Church, 151 Crestwood Drive, Salem, SC 29676. The viewing and visitation time will be held from 2:30 p.m. to the time of the service.

“ Ray and I became honey bee partners complete with trying to fit into the same bee suit. We spent a lot of time together trying to solve the bees in the porch problem🐝🐝 we had to be creative, but we did it, and made some great memories in the process🐝.
