“ Ricky grew up beside my family. He was fun to be around. He was a good friend. We will miss him. When I graduated from High School My two sisters and him went to Miami Florida. I know I had never been out of South Carolina. We got lost coming back. We used up all our money and stayed with a neighbor that used to live near us. We were tired but made it back to SC. safe. We all will miss your smiling face and keep you in our hearts.

“ Melinda I seen your post. I am overwhelmed. My heart breaks for your family. You know Ric was more my brother than just a friend. We all grew up together. All the times we shared its unreal. He would call and catch up and we would talk and laugh. I know heaven is a brighter place with him in it. But I will surely miss him. I send my love to u all. Heaven could now wait for him any longer. He was a kind and good hearted person. I know all the family and friends are having a reunion and rejoicing on his arrival 🙏
We all we see him again....💕

“ Though I never had the pleasure of working side by side with Ric I did see him on almost a daily basis. He had an infectious smile and always joking around. He was just an all around good guy that everyone admired. The greatest legacy one can leave is that of integrity and that Ric certainly had.
