“ To the Johnson Family,

I was a friend and fellow member of Bob in the Investment Club and I am so sorry to learn of his passing. Bob brought me into the club in the fall of 2017 as a member and my mentor and we will all miss his advice and insight into the stock market and the club's investments. I am thankful for the opportunity to meet and know him even for a short period of time and I pray for all of you to find some degree of peace in the days ahead. Bob will be greatly missed and always remembered by all of us in the club who had the honor and privilege to know him.
