“ i first met "Fitz" during my teenage years when my dad and uncle operated the Gulf Station in Salem during the mid 70's. He was a great example of positive customer service and great pride in his job, always making you feel at ease and happy to see him. No matter how much time went by, he always referred to me as Leonard Garrett's boy which suited me just fine. "Fitz", a good man who touched many lives in a positive way. Prayers for the family during this time..

“ The comments from Frankie Burrell and the lady at Richard Campbell say it all about you and Robert. He was a part of my teenage years at my dad's grocery store in Salem. Someone you just would not want to forget. The way you continued your lives while he was at Richard Campbell's was the way that you had always seemed to live your lives; happy just being together.
