“ Susan, I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of Alex. He was a great friend to me. He was always so kind by driving me home when I lived in Bayshore in high school sophomore year, interesting to be around, and had a heart of gold! I remember you coming into Ingles and getting your groceries and us talking about Alex and what crazy things he was up to then!! My family has you in our thoughts and prayers and wish you peace in this difficult time. I was blessed to know Alex and you and have always considered him like family!##imported-begin##Kelsey Buchanan Ramirez##imported-end##

“ Susan,
I can't imagine the sorrow and pain you are feeling at this time. I know there are no words that can ease that pain. Just know that Alex is at peace in Heaven with our Lord. Know that there are so many of us who have you in our thoughts and prayers, praying that you might find some comfort in knowing that you are being raised up in prayer. My deepest sympathy and love are with you.

“ To all the family and friends of Alex my thoughts and prayers go out to each of you. I meet Alex when he came to where I worked and was looking for a job. I told him to go to Action and there he found a home. I saw him almost everytime I went in there and he was always great to be around. I have family that worked with him there and I know he will be missed and he can't ever be replaced. I pray that you will find peace in the time that he was here on earth and that we will all see him again in heaven. Alex will always be in our hearts and minds and if I had to guess he is somewhere right now looking down on us sitting in a truck trying to figure out if lift kits are allowed in heaven.##imported-begin##Scott Durham##imported-end##
