“ Linda, TedAnna, Tabby, and family. I was so saddened to hear of Roger's homegoing. He was a sweet and loving servant of the Most High and I can't imagine how much you will miss him. He was an Godly example. He am sure He is walking the streets of gold right now and praising the Lord in person and waiting for the day his family will one day join him (of course, not anytime soon). You have been and are a special part of my life. You've been a friend and have shared your love and gifts with me. I miss each one of you. I have continued to keep you in my daily prayers and always will. My heart is heavy thinking of the emptiness you must feel but also the joy of knowing he is not suffering or in pain anymore. I pray the Lord will allow me a chance to visit with you soon. Until then, know I love you and will be praying faithfully for each of you. Love, Aunt Susie
