

Mr. Ronald Lawrence Cady

November 14, 1949 - November 24, 2023

Ronald Lawrence Cady, 74, loving husband of Darla Wendschuh Cady, of Salem, passed away on Friday, November 24, 2023, at his home where he so wanted to be.

A native of Boone, Iowa, Ron was the son of the late Wesley Marvin and Mary Wilson Cady. He retired from Kerr-McGee/Tronox, where he worked in Human Resources. Ron was also a United States Air Force Veteran.

He loved coaching his kids' sports teams across all sports, and then following them around the country as they competed in swimming both nationally and collegiately. In retirement he found more time for his love of golf, fishing, boating and spending time with friends and his family. No matter what he was doing, he made lifelong friends at every step along the way. He was most proud of his 4 grandchildren.

In addition to his wife Darla, Ron is survived by his son: Kurt Cady (Rachael); daughter: Alyssa Cady Dey (Brad); brother: Jim Peterson (Diane); brother-in-law: Dean Wendschuh (Doris); sister-in-law: Gayle Waibel (Mike); and grandchildren: Maddox Cady, Ashton Cady, Corvan Dey, and Rennika Dey.

In addition to his parents, Ron was preceded in death by his sisters: Joyce Peterson and Mary Jo Dimmitt; and brothers: Marvin Peterson and Bobby Peterson.

“ My deepest sympathy to you, Darla, and your family. There was never a time when I came into contact with Ron when he didn't have a smile on his face. Always busy and always so helpful. He will truly be missed.

“ Oh so many memories of Ron! From his time at F.E. Warren Air Force base and Laramie, to being neighbors in Rock Springs- He let me borrow a pair of his jeans to go skiing at Jackson Hole, I was 7 months pregnant! To Gillette. After that we stayed in Gillette and You moved to Nevada. We kept up with your family through Dale's folks.

Old friends are hard to loose. Hugs to you Darla and your family. I know Ron is "Romping' & Stompin'" around heaven, waiting for us all!
