“ We are so sorry to learn of the passing of Roy. He was such a great guy! His smile and pleasant ways were truly an asset! We shall always remember back to Little League baseball when Timmy played with Bradley and then Roy's continued support of Bradley through his athletics. He was truly a fine man and will be sincerely missed. May God's richest blessings be upon you and give you the strength that only he can give during this time. You are in our prayers and thoughts.##imported-begin##Larry and Martha LeCroy##imported-end##
