“ On August 31st., 1996 we became a part of Roy's family when our daughter married his son. We have been blessed becoming part of their family, many miles between us but always welcomed with love. We enjoyed his cooking, grilling and smoking meats, also just sharing stories of our past. We loved Roy's South Carolina accent, this was part of us liking to hear what was on his mind.

*Knowing Roy and his Christian faith, we will see him again in the presence of our Lord.
Our prayers for his family.*
