“ There are hardly words to express the loss of a mother. I am just so grateful to have known my aunt. She was truly a special person. She was a blessing in helping me find peace and comfort in the death of my own mother. I enjoyed our talks and I will forever miss that. Ruby lived a nice long life in this world. Ruby loved the Lord .The best thing about a christian's death is knowing that they are truly with the Lord. And she is in GOOD HANDS forever.
