“ My wife and I got to know Buck through horseback riding at Earl's Ford around 1986. We became friends and rode horses together many times. Even after we stopped riding Horses Buck still remained close friends with us and we visited him a lot. I would keep all his horse trailers and equipment trailer lights and brakes working and anytime I needed something Buck was right down the road with his backhoe or whatever it took to help me out. Our 2 son's grew up knowing Buck Cobb and thinking the world of him. My oldest son would borrow books from Buck and read them, then take them back and get more when he was finished. I enjoyed all the time I spent with Buck and enjoyed all the stories he told. Our youngest son wound up going into the Navy. He and Buck had a lot to talk about and every time he was home he would try and go by Buck's and talk to him a while.

Buck was easy going and fun to be around. We all are going to miss him but I'm thankful I met him and got to know him the way I did.
