“ Russ: What can I say? Thought you would be at our next OWA meeting as usual. Never did I imagine your presence with us was coming to a close. Once again, there will be an empty seat at our meeting that will hold only the memory of our dear friend. I so appreciate your role in seeing that the OWA kept existing year after year. You shared your life experiences with us, your laughter, your amazing poetry, a helping hand always and unconditional friendship to anyone who would accept it. I'm glad I did. We will miss you dearly. We love you.
