“ Mr. Sam Bradburn

January 28, 2023 at 01:03 PM

“ My mother, Barbara Bradburn Johnson, sister to Sam, and I would visit my uncle Sam intermittently in earlier times. I was always greeted with a gentle kindness. My prayers have been with my Bradburn family, may the Lord and his eternal stewardship over His own be a comfort as our family member goes the way of this world. I am reminded of this Scripture of those believers taken from us...

Isaiah 57:1–2 (NASB95): 1 The righteous man perishes, and no man takes it to heart;

And devout men are taken away, while no one understands.

For the righteous man is taken away from evil,

2 He enters into peace;

They rest in their beds,

Each one who walked in his upright way.

God bless you family and may the Lord give increase to the Gifts of the Spirit through this time: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control, for against these my brothers and sisters in Christ, there is no law and thus they are freedom true. In Jesus' name, Amen

With Love in Christ...

Sam was a good man and I enjoyed talking to him and he was so kind to Ethel and my mother and had a generous Spirit about it. Sam will be missed by many but he is no longer suffering.

To Sam's children Bill, Melinda and Revonda.. I'm so sorry about the loss of your dad and my uncle. We was such a good and fun loving guy. We was loved so much. The last time I saw him was at his house in Hendersonville. We shagged together in the living room and had so much fun. I'm so thankful for that last memory of such a wonderful man and Uncle.

So sorry I was unable to make the trip from Florida. Love you guys and hopefully we'll get to visit when I can get back to those good ole mountains.

So sorry I was
