

Mr. Samuel Taylor Tilson

January 24, 1991 - February 21, 2016

Our charismatic and beautiful son and brother, Samuel Taylor Tilson, lost his lengthy battle with drug addiction Sunday morning, February 21, 2016. Samuel was the son of Terry and Jamie Moore Tilson, and the brother of Emily Brooke Tilson, all of Tamassee, SC.

His 25 years and 28 days of life began on the snowy day of January 24, 1991, in Anderson, SC. The perfect little baby boy God sent was more than our hearts or minds could have ever imagined. He was an angel straight from Heaven. We have always been, and forever will be, grateful God chose us to be his parents. The pleasure was ours.

Samuel was blessed with great looks, remarkable intelligence, superior wit, and a killer dimpled smile. His charming personality and unwavering loyalty afforded him countless friends all throughout his life. His heart was full of genuine love and generosity. He never met a stranger and had an extra special place in his heart for elderly people. He, himself, was always an old soul, of sorts. How else can you explain his love for pickled okra, turnip greens, hot coffee, The Temptations and Elvis by age four? This, of course, helped to fuel the musical fire that burned so fiercely in Sam's heart. He loved to sing, play the guitar, and perform for anybody that would listen. His musical influences were many and his talent was a gift he loved to share.

Aside from his music, Samuel was passionate about sports. He played basketball and golf throughout middle and high school for Tamassee-Salem Eagles until his graduation in 2009. His coaches and teammates during these special years remained close to his heart throughout his life. Sam was also an avid USC Gamecock fan. Being a house divided, this always added extra sparks to our house in late November. We tried to make nice with him by offering to buy him some deeply discounted garnet and black clothes we saw in January. He declined.

Samuel accepted Jesus Christ as his savior as a young man. What an incredible moment as parents, and as believers of the gospel, to see your child's profession of faith! Words cannot describe the peace we received knowing our Sam has the promise of eternal life. This promise from God gives us, his family, total assurance we will be reunited with our son completely healed from the demons of bipolar disorder and addiction. God is so good.

Samuel had the most loving and supportive grandparents that loved and prayed for him faithfully. His Papa and Nana are Howard and Patricia Tilson of Salem. His Gaga is Sheila Moore of Oakway. He is also survived by many loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Also, by Oliver, the loving family cat, whom Samuel adored.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4:00 PM, Thursday, February 25, 2016, at Davenport Funeral Home.

The family will receive friends from 2:00–4:00 PM, Thursday, February 25, 2016, prior to the service at Davenport Funeral Home.

Flowers are accepted, or memorials may be made to Our Daily Bread, 106 Jordan St, Seneca, SC 29678 or Our Daily Rest, P.O. Box 1246 Seneca, SC 29679.

Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop to look once in a while, you could miss it.

“ I did not know this young man personally but my daughter and granddaughter did. He was a sweet wonderful and talented young man that many loved and admired. What a beautiful tribute to him his family wrote about his life. Cherish the memories and hold on to Gods promise of eternal life and know that one day when you are reunited with your son it will be for eternity. God bless this family and know that i will continue to keep you all in my heart and in prayers.

“ You may not remember me, I am a daughter of Ann Pressley. Your family lived across the street from her. My sister Connie and I would come up to visit Mom and all of our kids would play together. Mom loved your kids very much. I was heartbroken to hear you lost Samuel. I can still picture that sweet smiling face. I cannot imagine your pain. Your family is in my prayers. With love and sympathy, Cheryl Pour

“ Dear Family,
First off, I'm sorry for you loss.
I don't think I know you...it doesn't matter.
This is absolutely one of the most wonderful, honest obituaries I've ever read.
As I read it, I came to know this handsome young man and his life story...at times I felt as if I'd been there. To share such honesty at a time where most try to hide....is remarkable.
God bless all of you. Rest in Peace young man...your journey here has ended and a new one has begun.

“ I loved the times we talked about Jesus! He truly was a beautiful boy and had an old soul! He could carry on in depth conversations about the bible and knew what he was talking about! I will miss never getting to do that again with Samuel...but I know that he is loving heaven and that his battle is over...love and prayers to his family...

“ I have been around Samuel at my sister, his aunt, Lynn's house throughout his life and spent time with him when we attended the same church while he was still in high school. What stands out most about him for me, similar to what others have expressed, is/was his mischievous nature and handsome dimpled smile. I remember Samuel always laughing about something, or creating something to laugh about. He had a way to light up a situation or room and make things so much more fun!

God bless you all and may you find strength and peace through your faith in Him.

“ I remember when Samuel started school. I was the librarian at Tamassee Elementary. He was a precious child with a winning smile and lots of mischief, a typical little charming boy. I watched him grow and I was so happy when he accepted Jesus as his savior.
Every time I talked with him on the phone or saw him, he was loving and kind. I remember his great talent-I so enjoyed hearing him sing.
The last time was at church about 3 months ago. He had promised to sing again soon. Now he is in heaven with my husband, probably singing at Jesus' s feet. He will be missed by many.

“ I would like to express my condolences to Jamie and the entire Tilson family. Sam was a great kid and a good friend growing up with my sons Andrew and Dylan. I remember attending assemblies at Tamassee Elementary always wondering just how Sam was going to make the entire cafetorium laugh. I was lucky enough to have know Sam pretty well and he spent a fair amount of time in and around my home and family. He was always respectful and caring and always had a smile and good word for all. The entire community is a little darker today after losing one of it's shining lights.

“ Sam was such a sweetheart. We (Sam, Kayla, and I) had the best time at A concert at the masquerade. We saw his favorite bands Escape the fate and Falling in Reverse ... He was in the wall of death moshing his heart outhe lost his glasses that night, but it didn't stop us from having the best time.....His smile and dimples could light up a room and that bubbly personality, made everyone his friend, he was a good boy..... I love Sam like a son and I pray for Jamie, Terry, and Emily in this horrible time . Gone too soon❤️

“ The sweetest dimpled smile of a young boy with a heart as big as the sky is what I think of when I think of Sam. His love of "pigs in a blanket" and gettin' in the pool are memories I will always cherish. Jamie called one day with one of her many Sam stories to share about his innocence and the humor that was easily found in it. His Gaga (grandma, Sheila) had bought him a Venus Fly Trap at the grocery store. When getting ready for church on Sunday morning Sam told his mama he wanted to take it to church with him. When Jamie asked why he wanted to take it, he so sweetly said "Cause mama their may be some Venus Flies there." What a precious gift the Moore and Tilson family has been given. Now their gift is safely cherished in Heaven where they will one day be able to spend eternity enjoying that beautiful smile. God bless each of you and may you know the love and feel the prayers of those who knew and was blessed by this gifted young man.
