“ Oh I am so sorry. I'm just now seeing this. She was a lovely lady. I took care of her husband. She was always so attentive to him. Such the example of a godly wife. May her children rise up and call her blessed. RIP

“ I used to be a caregiver at Lakewood Assisted Living where Sandra lived. Im so grateful I was able to get to know her. I had to quit my job because of college, but I would come visit her, and we would talk for hours. She motivated me, and was always there for me. If I had a bad day, I'd come and talk to her. It didn't matter if it was 9:00 at night, she would always open her door, and she listened to anything I wanted to talk about. She made me feel so special. I will miss our long conversations and the laughs we shared together. Sandra was such a special woman. She was loved by so many. She had so much love for her grandchildren. I will miss her so much. ❤️

“ I had the greatest pleasure taking care of Bob at Lila Doyle. Sandra would always come and sit with him for lunch and feed him. She was so faithful to her husband and was always willing to help us anyway she could. Right before Bob passed, I asked Sandra if I could sit with her for a while and of course, she said yes. I knew she was tired and didn't want to leave Bobs side, so I asked her about the one thing she loved the most - her sons. We sat there with Bob and talked about each of her sons and the jobs they had but most importantly how proud she was of her sons. Every time she talked about each of her sons she always smiled, and you could tell she was truly proud of each of them. Both Sandra and Bob were extraordinary people, and I'm so blessed our paths crossed. I am praying deeply for this family especially her sons. The way she talked about her sons I know they had such a good relationship with her but as this is all a sad time just know Sandra and Bob are reunited with each other and Jesus. I hope this finds comfort in you.

Oh Casey! Thank you so much. You cannot know how much it means to me that you remembered both Mom and Dad. Thank you so much for taking care of Dad. That was a very long 5 years, and Mom stayed with him until the end. It was particularly hard on her. When he asked her to marry him she said, "Yes, but only if you give me 50 years." They gave each other 61. They were both saints and I miss them so much. I am only happy they are both at peace in infinite love. Thank you so much!
