“ I only knew Sandy Hutchins by “my dad”, through Max, but going by what was always said, he was a great man, a loving husband and caring father. I know his passing will leave a void, but I feel like he would want everyone to be happy and enjoy life. I know it can still be done by remembering him and emulating his thoughtfulness. My sincere condolences to all those who knew him. His passing will be hard, but please find peace. I feel like it’s what “dad” would really want.
