“ Devan, Wanda and Barry, we are sorrowful to hear of the passing of your mother. Sara is one of our favorite aunts. We had some of the best times of our lives with you all. Do you remember our trip to Ghost Town in 1969? May the Lord give you all grace and strength as you grieve the loss, knowing the separation is just temporary. I believe she is rejoicing with her Savior and all the others there in heaven. Love you all and we have you in our prayers.

“ She was my mother in law for 30 years but in her last 3 months of life I grew most closer to her. With her failing health I spent more and more time helping with her laundry and dishes and running errands for her. I treated her like I would have my mom and was happy to do things for her. She will be deeply missed and I am glad to have known her.
