“ To Sharon's Family,

I have mixed feeling about Sharon's death. She was one of the most caring and helpful person I have known. We worked closely for years and I could call and make a request of Sharon and she would, with a chuckle, give me the information requested. She never forwarded my calls to someone else because it was their job or area. She would seek a solution and get back to me if she didn't know the answer. We would talk about our jobs, people we knew through work, and life in general. She was a breath of fresh air in the midst of some stuffiness we had to work in and live through. But I could ALWAYS count on Sharon for encouragement, laughter, and help. I have missed that from her since she left due to her health. But on the other hand, I rejoice in her death because she is no longer suffering. I pray that you will be able to remember Sharon in her good times. Remember that she loved life. Remember that she loved Joseph. Let her memories bring you comfort and may God's love rest with you always through the presence of the Holy Spirit.##imported-begin##Lea Benson##imported-end##

“ Dear Virgil and Carrie,

Mike and I are so sorry to learn about Sharon. We know that you were with her to the end and we pray that she had a peaceful homegoing. Cancer has been a great enemy of the bowling community these past few years with the last one being exceptionally hard. Thank goodness for places like Cottingham Cottage.

You and your family are in our prayers.

“ I worked with Sharon at the Graduate School before retiring to TN. I can still hear Sharon's laugh like it was yesterday! I was so saddened to find out that she was dealing with cancer. I know she was a fighter. She was always so upbeat and the life of the party. My prayers are with her family of which she was so proud. She spoke so often about her family and the bowling alley. Most of all, we knew about ALL of Joseph's accomplishments. She was SO proud of him. May God comfort you all as she rests in peace.##imported-begin##Diane Donald##imported-end##
