“ This is Stan's eldest daughter, Stacie. It is with deepest regret that I received word of my dad's passing. Although we had lost contact again in the past few years, I often thought about my father and talked about him with my husband and children. I believe in my heart that both my dad, myself and children were robbed of a family relationship since I was 11 years of age. This is what I regret most. My dad will always hold a special place in my heart and I will keep him in my prayers. God bless. With all my love, Stacie##imported-begin##Stacie Cunningham##imported-end##
