

Mr. Stephen Forrest Blackwell

March 16, 1949 - October 4, 2013

Stephen Forrest Blackwell, 64 husband of Deborah Sullivan Blackwell, of 219 Highlands Hwy., Walhalla, passed away Friday, October 4, 2013 at Greenville Memorial Hospital.

A native of Oconee County, Mr. Blackwell is the son of Luther Blackwell and the late Mary Jones Blackwell. Mr. Blackwell was retired from Duke Power with thirty years of service and after his retirement he worked with Oconee Medical Center. He was a veteran of the United States Navy having served in Viet Nam and was a member of Keowee Baptist Church. Steve's pride and joy were his five "boys" Rossie, Banji, Frizzie, Skipper and Phillick.

In addition to his wife and father, Mr. Blackwell is survived by brothers, Doug Blackwell of Westminster; Tommy Blackwell of West Union; a sister, Martha Findley of Seneca.

In addition to his mother, Mr. Blackwell was predeceased by a brother, Johnny Blackwell.

Funeral services will be held at 4:00 PM Monday, October 7, 2013 at Davenport Funeral Home Chapel with burial to follow at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

The family will receive friends from 6:00 to 8:00 PM Sunday, October 6, 2013, at Davenport Funeral Home.

Flowers are accepted.

The family will be at the home.

*Deb,
We had not heard about Steve until after his burial. We extend our deepest sympathy to you. LC and Steve had a great connection. Steve was always such a gentleman to us both. God grant you comfort and peace. Again, we are truly saddened about Steve and sorry you have suffered the loss of your husband.*
