“ I am Doris Stubblefields son (JOEY). I remember visiting Aunt Sue and Uncle David as a child in Walhalla. Playing on their green concrete carport, enjoying the view of the mountains and being scared of what may have been down their basement stairs as I played at the top. The last time I visited was after I got out of the Marine Corps. I wish the family well and apologize for the late memories and condolences. WE visited whenever we went to visit my grandfather (JOHN STUBBLEFIELD) who was buried right down the road from their house overlooking the mountains.
