“ My Dear Sweet Friend Suzy Q, I love you so much. So many memories have flooded my mind the past week or two. God put you in my path and I have been so blessed by it. I remember coming over and just talking and our conversations usually erupted in crazy laughter. We were fast friends and I have no idea what I would have done if you didn't have a key to my house...climb through the windows a lot more I guess. I remember when you stole my groceries....it was so funny and a great prank. I remember the night we were talking over the fence to each other and we stood there a good 10 minutes when I turned my head and there was a huge possum on the fence an arm's length away from me. I started screaming you just rolled laughing and the possum never moved. I wish we could chat some more. I loved what you stood for, you were always a Godly woman and we shared a fondness of The Gather's music. You converted me to "Hellman's Mayonnaise" when I swore it could never be done. We shared so much and I hope I said thank you for watching Sammy Dog all those times when we were gone. You were always so kind to my boys and supported all the things they did and bought all the crazy fund raisers through their years of school. "Q" your laughter was infectious and I will never forget it. I fell in love with your mother, Pearl and she became my friend too and I will hold on forever to the time we all talked about our Lord and Pearl would quote scripture after scripture. She had a huge influence on my life and you did too my precious friend. I tried to figure out how to send you Valpo Velvet Orange sherbert. I will just have remember our times eating it together. Part of you will live on forever from all the good you placed in people's lives. I will miss you "Q" but I know you are in God's loving arms and there is no more pain. Go rest high on that mountain Suzy Q....love you forever!!
