

Mr. Tanner Homer Hopkins

February 8, 2009 - November 14, 2025

With hearts full of sorrow, we announce the passing of our beloved son and brother, Tanner Hopkins, who left this world far too soon on November 14, 2025, at the age of 16. Born on February 8, 2009, Tanner blessed our lives with a quiet, gentle spirit and a presence that spoke louder than words ever could.

Tanner was a precious young man defined by his faith, deep curiosity, and determined spirit. He found joy in all things mechanical, from cars and bikes to anything he could disassemble and rebuild. With aspirations of becoming an engineer and a natural entrepreneurial drive, Tanner continually sought to learn more, especially through his passion for computers and technology. He appreciated both the quiet of the outdoors and the creativity of gaming, and he held a special fondness for the '90s era.

He was a proud Clemson football fan and spent time on the field himself, where his teammates affectionately called him "Mango." Whether on the field, in the garage, exploring outdoors, immersed in technology, or simply surrounded by those he loved, Tanner's strength, kindness, and determination left an unforgettable impact on everyone who knew him.

Tanner is deeply loved by his parents, Thomas Joseph Hopkins and Tisha Greenwood Hopkins, and by his brothers, Mason Hopkins and Bryson Hopkins, who will forever hold his memory close.

Tanner's time with us was far too short, but the love he shared, the passions he pursued, and the steady light of his spirit will remain with us always. Tanner is now in the arms of his Creator, held in perfect peace and perfect love.

"For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain." — Philippians 1:21

“ I met this fine young man just a short few years ago. When his dad bought my aunt's farm, Tanner was always around to lend a helpful hand. He was so very courteous and polite. A few weeks ago he came to my house daily for a week helping me with chores. I will never forget him and all his fine qualities you could easily love. God bless each member of his as you travel through this chapter of your lives.
