*Judy and family,
Patsy and I are saddened to hear of Brother Tommy's passing. He has always been a blessing to us and I know of so many others. He was one of the most humble and godly men that I ever had the privilege of knowing. It was an honor to have been his Pastor and to have worked with him when he served as the Church Treasurer and on the Pastor's Council. He has left a great testimony and will be greatly missed. I know that this must be a great time of sorrow for you because of your great love for each other. Please know that Patsy and I love you and you all are in our thoughts and prayers.
