“ Prayers for your family. I am so glad that I had the privilege of knowing Thomas. We worked together and became friends. He was so talented and a hard working man. I will never forget our times together. Thomas has fought a good fight, finished his course , and kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up a crown righteousness the Lord the righteous Judge shall give to him and not him only but to all that look for and love his appearing. God give you comfort during this time.
