“ Dixie, I'm so sorry to learn of Wayne's passing. I have great memories of him from our visits to Florida throughout my childhood. I recently shared with my kids and grandkids about the time that you and Wayne took me waterskiing. When I couldn't get up on the skis, Wayne put me on his shoulders and took me around. It was so much fun! Wayne was a great cousin and he will always have a place in my heart. My sincere condolences,

“Dixie, I just read all the wonderful tributes to Wayne, and I see I missed a lot not seeing and having contact with you two in the last 40 years. Goodness, seems both of you have contributed so much to the church, community organizations and to the Christians of this area. I thought the world of Wayne, he and I spent little time together back in the late 70's and early 80's, but he left quite an impression on me. I see his smiling face, beautiful smile, and hear his sincere chuckle, even now, remembering. He was the only contractor I would ever have considering forming a partnership with. He left this world too young, I was blessed to know him, and you. I was out of town Monday, or I would have been to the visitation.

“ I cannot express in words the admiration and love I have for Wayne Meeks. I considered him a mentor, friend, and witness. Everything he did was done with a master’s touch. He was the hardest working man I know, but always had time for a conversation. He was the example for how I should live my life. There is a void that cannot be filled here in our earthly life now, but an encouragement for us knowing we will meet again. God blessed us with his presence in our lives. God bless you Wayne Meeks.

Also I still picture him sitting with Pop Evatt playing his guitar while pop played the banjo. I bet they are playing for Jesus. I love you all and am keeping you close in thoughts and prayers.
