“ We just received notice today and are so sorry to hear about my old buddy Tom’s passing. For many years Tom and I traveled together to muzzleloader tournaments and shot our muzzleloaders shoulder to shoulder. We were in the same shooting clubs...South Florida Tamiami Rangers and the Florida Frontiersmen. We attended many rendezvous together. We had many, many laughs and good times. He frequently came over to our home in Fort Myers. We have known his wife Connie and Christopher since Christopher was a wee lad. A good family. Tom was always a kind and helpful man. We were separated from the family when we moved back to NYS and the Murphy’s moved to SC. We did keep in touch by email. Tom recently forwarded me the daily Catholic email devotional called Formed. I watch it every day and always think of my buddy Tom and his family. We share your grief and loss. I pray that Tom is received in the Lord’s loving arms and we all meet again in His Kingdom. Amen!
