“ So many great memories of times shared Tim over the years flooded my mind after hearing of his passing. He was a true friend and shipmate who I shared great times with in high school and service in the US Navy. Most may not know his nickname "Tidewater Tim", but his shipmates will always remember him as "Roll on Tidewater" was what he would say as the ship would get underway for a deployment from Norfolk VA. Fair winds and following seas shipmate and friend. Roll on Tidewater till we meet again.

To all of you, I am so sorry for your loss. Tim was always so nice when I got to see him. Losing anyone is hard any time, but a shock such as this takes a toll. Lean on Jesus, as much as you need to. My heart truly goes out to you all. It will be a hrad road, but your family will make it through. It is so tough to say good bye, but what a wonderful thing--to be with Jesus. My love prayers are with all of you.

“ Mrs. Poston, Ken, Lisa, Monica, and April, my thoughts and prayers are with you all as you mourn Tim's death. Losing a loved one is very difficult, but in the 23rd Psalm verse 4, we are reminded that God will comfort us. Heaven received another angel last Wednesday, but don't you know that Mr. Utah and Sherry were there waiting for him. We all can rejoice in knowing that we will see Tim again!
Love you all!
