“ Tommy was a friend to my son in high school they had overnight visits with each other. July 2008 I lost my younger son to a drug overdose. He was 20 and I still grieve his passing. My heart breaks for you. I feel your pain and know exactly what you are going through. I won't say it gets easier but it does get tolerable. God bless you all. You are in my prayers. My # is 247-7076 if you ever need to talk to someone whose heart is broke also.

Tommy was a great friend over the years who will be deeply missed. We had occasional discussions over the years about our lives in the military. I have a scar on my wrist from a fishing accident years ago with Tommy when we were in high school. For days now I haven't been able to stop looking at it. He was far too young to be taken from us, but chose the gift of life which saved many others. That act of kindness along with Tommy's selfless service to our country and countless other acts of generosity speak volumes about him. My deepest condolences to his family and friends, you are all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I haven't seen Tommy in years, but my last memory of him was at a very troubling time in my life, and he was trying to save me for myself. It seems fitting that his passing is marked by saving others as well. That's how big his heart & soul really was.
Prayers of peace and comfort to his friends, family & loved ones.

“ Tommy Mills, my baby brother. I love you and miss you more than words could express. Tommy was a very kind, loving, fun, and giving person. He would pick up a stranger off of the side of the road and take them any where they needed to go. He had the smile of an Angel, the most beautiful blue eyes you could see through, and a heart made of Gold. I'll never forget...It was always my job to get off the school bus at his day care, get him, and walk us to my grandma's house just a few houses down the road, until my parents were off work. Everytime I got there he was gone. That little booger would climb the fence and walk to grandma's way before I could ever get off the bus..lol. He was loved, spoiled and grandma Conner's baby. We had the best childhood any one could ever imagine. He was a happy child, young man! and a great brother. When I walked down the drive every morning for school, he use to look out the big window to watch me get on the bus and cry " sissy stay home with me ," " I don't want you to go to school without me", " sissy come back don't leave " He was never a thorn in my side during our childhood, he was the ROSE. !!! You are loved Tommy and every life you touched loved you, especially when you helped out at the Nursing Homes !!! I'm hurt but happy you are at peace.

“ I taught Tommy for two classes while he was at Seneca High. I always think of his smiles and laughter, and how much he contributed to the classes. What an awesome young man he was then, and he went on to be even greater. Proud to see of his service to our country. Honored to have known him. Prayers sent for Candace, and the rest of the family.
