

Mrs Toni Christen "Chrissy" Leigh Derrick Holland

October 24, 1995 - December 23, 2025

Toni Christen “Chrissy” Leigh Derrick Holland, 30, beloved wife of Mickey Holland, passed away on Tuesday, December 23, 2025, at Greenville Memorial Hospital after a courageous 277-day battle with round cell undifferentiated sarcoma cancer, an extremely rare and aggressive disease. Born in Oconee County, South Carolina, Chrissy was the daughter of Johelen Maria Lamb Derrick and the late Anthony Doyle Derrick. Throughout her illness, Chrissy showed extraordinary strength, grace, and selflessness. During her fight, she built a large and devoted following on social media, openly documenting her journey to raise awareness for round cell undifferentiated sarcoma cancer—a diagnosis with fewer than 200 cases ever reported worldwide. Through her transparency and determination, Chrissy helped pave the way in the name of science, contributing to a better understanding of this rare cancer and offering hope to future patients and families.

Above all else, Chrissy was a devoted wife and an extraordinary mother. She is survived by her husband, Mickey Holland, and her precious children: sons Riley Allen Holland and Axel Anthony Holland, and daughter Hazel Maria Leigh Holland, who were the light of her life and the source of her unwavering strength. She is also survived by her mother, Johelen Maria Lamb Derrick; her sister, Joanna Elizabeth Derrick; and her extended family of cousins: Haley, Harley, Ronnie, Wayne, Jamie, Sarah, Amanda, Christopher, Stephanie, Jeremy, Will, Jessica “Jessey”, Michael, Sean and Zoie; and many nieces and nephews whom she loved.

Chrissy was preceded in death by her father, Anthony Doyle Derrick; her brother, Devin Doyle Derrick; her paternal grandparents, Christopher Doyle Derrick and Annie Ruth White Derrick; and her maternal grandparents, Ronald Lamb and Judy Calcutt.

A visitation will be held from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM on Monday, December 29, 2025, at Davenport Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 AM on Tuesday, December 30, 2025, in the Davenport Funeral Home Chapel, with burial to follow at Evergreen Memorial Gardens.

Flowers are accepted.

The family is at the home.

Chrissy's legacy is one of extraordinary courage, purpose, and love. In the face of a devastating diagnosis, she chose to turn her suffering into meaning by using her voice to educate, advocate, and bring awareness to round cell undifferentiated sarcoma cancer—one of the rarest cancers known, with fewer than 200 cases ever reported. Through 277 days of relentless strength, Chrissy documented her journey not for sympathy, but to help others understand, to support future patients, and to advance awareness in the name of science. Her willingness to share the raw truth of her battle has already helped pave the way for greater understanding of this rare disease and will continue to impact research and lives for years to come. Above all, her greatest legacy lives on in her children and in the countless hearts she touched—proof that even in the darkest moments, one life can make a lasting difference.

I have followed Chrissy's story online. What an amazing mother, wife, sister, daughter and to everyone that knew her. Her online supporters feel like she was part of our family as well. Fly high beautiful momma. Spread your wings. No more pain no more tears. You are an angel now watching over your husband and babies. I'm sure going to miss your sweet smile and kind words. You are missed immensely and the world mourns with everyone there.

Your wife's journey popped up on my feed last night randomly. You don't know me from Adam's house at but God knows you and He sees you. I prayed for your family last night and this morning and will continue to stand in the gap. Your wife had goodness in her. It showed in her beautiful eyes. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I never met Chrissy in person, but I have followed her on her journey. She had so many followers that loved her on her Facebook. Chrissy had such grace and belief in God and so much love to give to everyone always a positive attitude never giving up may her beautiful soul rest in peace. She may be gone from this earth, but she will always watch over her family. Her husband was an amazing caretaker. He showed so much love and compassion for his wife such a young couple to endure such pain and suffering, I will continue to pray for the family and give them strength to keep following the Lord's path. It's just gonna be a long road for the family, but with God's help friends, family, and their Facebook followers they will get through this. May God bless each and everyone of you may the Lord lift you and praying for those beautiful children God bless thank you for sharing Chrissy with us. We have all loved and cared for her. Amen.r her. Amen.

“ *Chrissy, you showed bravery, strength, determination, love and hope
I watched your journey, I cried, wishing there was a cure for you.
God got another angel,
To your family, the bond, the love, and their strength will guide them through this sad time.

“ *To the Derrish Family My heart is broken for you! I watched her story every day. What does strong, bubbly woman, beautiful family!
Cancer does not discriminate. I want to thank you for trying everything you could for this rare cancer to find a cure. ❤️ I saw hoped as all of us did that you would turn the corner and run to the finish line given more life even fully healed. Mickey, you were the greatest husband I ever ever witnessed. The way you took care of your wife and children even having to leave to go to work sometimes, you were outstanding and always will be. They have to go to work should be outlawed. You shouldn't have to lose any moment with your. Moma Yes ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ May God all his angels surround you and the kids, family, and friends also at this time.
Comfort and care for all of you wipe your eyes and help you keep walking forward. You will never forget her ever! Chrissy, you are now in God's heaven. Looking down on your four angels and your family and friends. No pain no hurt big beautiful smile. God bless you and thank you again for trying to do something for cancer and science. Bless you sweetheart. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️🙏🏻🍀🍀🍀🍀🦋🦋🦋*

“ Mickey and the family im so sorry for your lost. Chrissy has touched so many of us on social media. She was a beautiful person inside and out. She is now a beautiful guardian angel to look over yall now. May she live through her children. All 3 of her children look just like her. Hazel I can see her acting just like her when she gets older. Maybe prayers and hugs coming yalls way.
