I worked on the Road with TC in the past, I have just now learned of TC's passing this week. Lordy Mercy I hated to hear this. TC was a great guy and Loved everyone he came in Contact with. TC never met a Stranger. I was on the road last year with TC in Utah and Wyoming. While Traveling from State to State TC would always want to Stop at different places to buy his Friends and Loved ones Souviniers. He Loved his Loved ones and Friends very much. I am really going to miss TC. Rest in Peace TC I Love you Buddy. Robin Rhea

“ I worked as a Foreman for a construction company out of California called PMSI. TC as we knew Tony as was a tube welder and a very good one. He always seemed laid back and low keyed. TC will be truly missed by our band of Journeymen from all over the U.S.

I worked with Tony. He was a hard worker, and a good friend. He lived life in the fast lane. Rest in peace Tony. Deepest condolences to his friends and family.

“ I cried from the minute I found out. Dear Tony. So fun ! So full of life and smart beyond! One of the best welders in the country. I will miss him and my text saying "Waz Up". I will especially cherish his sense of humor and how he'd pull his sunglasses down to look at you with his pretty blue eyes. Tubing down the Edisto, Boat rides on the Cooper River, and him showing off his latest toy. RIP my sweet friend. I will miss you. Prayers and hugs to family and the other friends who will miss you so.

Many thanks to all of you who have shared your kind thoughts about Tony or TC as he is known to many of his welding family. He was and still is my very precious, precious son (MY FAVORITE SON AS HE WAS CALLED)and he is sorely, sorely missed. Your kindness and my fond memories have helped sustain me over these months. Tony loved his friends, coworkers, family and life. He loved traveling for his job and got to see many places (16 states in 2014) and he had many stories to tell. He always looked forward to a new venture but loved coming home for R & R and taking summers off. Please continue to pray for his family as we try to learn to live without him. Again thank you for your friendship and kind words now and over the years you have known him or the family. I am his mother and best friend, Naomi C Padgett
