“ Dear Evelyn, Jamie, Becky and family: My heart is saddened by the news of Mrs. Simpson's passing because I know how much you will miss her, but happy because she was ready to enter her new home in heaven. So many in Oconee County will recall Mrs. Simpson with fond and sweet memories. She always smiled, had a servant's heart, and was never harsh. She loved her family, the church, and the Lord God. I recall her from my years at Northside Baptist Church in Seneca. She was there for every service and was much more than a pew warmer. She was a friend to all who knew her. She was also a great cook and I recall visiting her many times and enjoying her wonderful culinary skills though she would have called it country cooking.

Thank you, for sharing your mother and grandmother with so many others over the years.

I pray that these days of preparing for her final farewell and the days of missing her presence on earth will be tempered with the joyful expectation of knowing that you will see her again in heaven...

Blessings upon each of you.
