“ Beth would go to the park with me an my girls. She would push them on a tire swing an pinch their butts. An she would say butt biskets. They would laugh so hard. The more they laughed the more she laughed. We loved going fishing with Beth. Being near the water seemed where she found her most peace. Beth is going to be so missed by so many. We love you Beth. We are sending prayers to the family.

“ Aunt Beth, Wanda and Tammy are the only part of my dads family that i still talk too. But now all I have is my Aunt Wanda. And I'm eternally grateful for her but it doesn't feel the same without Aunt Beth.

“ I have known Beth since she entered school. She and I have kept in contact since then. She loved her family and was a good friend. Even through her many battles to be healthy and all the setbacks, she remained positive and NEVER complained. I enjoyed our conversations and visits. She could always make me smile and laugh. She was an inspiration to me, and I will miss her.

In our discussions about her health, she would say, "Well, I'm going to stick around until God is ready for me." A few days ago, I reminded her of this, and her response was, "He is ready now." I know she and Tammy and other family and friends are having a wonderful reunion. I'm sure heaven has some wonderful fishing sites.

My condolences to her sweet, precious sister Wanda, and her supportive, loving son, Billy.
