“ Mr. Lay did a lot of work for us along with his beautiful wife. The work they could do in an hour puts the rest of us to shame. In his later years I enjoyed seeing him walking down at Sertoma Field always wearing his overalls. He had a special place in my heart even though he didn't know it because he always reminded me how my dad used to love to wear his overalls. I have missed seeing him at Sertoma for a few months. Heaven has gained another nice, friendly, soft-spoken, gentleman who worked hard and loved his lumber business. Rest in Peace, Mr. Lay.
