“ To all my Kelly cousins I am sending my condolences for the loss of this good, Christian woman who was such a large part of my childhood growing up. As she takes her place beside Ernest at Pleasant Hill, she is certainly among so many other loved ones and friends in a community where she played such a big roll. She was so helpful to me when I began trying to put together our family history together and I treasure her written history that she gave me. Well, if there are singing trios in Heaven, then she, Mama and Eunice are doing their part. Rest In Peace Pauline.

“ Mrs. Cannon was a joy to know. A few years back she wrote about her childhood and growing up on a farm. Her book was printed in parts in our Keowee Courier. Those writings brought a lot of insight to those of us native to this area by showing what life was like years ago. It certainly made me wonder if our lives now are better than then. When I asked Mrs. Cannon about that, she sat me down and REALLY told me of the hardships growing up in her era. I am convinced we know nothing of the hard times people had in years gone by! She and my MIL were great friends for years and now they are rejoicing together with their husbands; probably singing a little, too. Listen closely. Ernie, Anne, Tripp, Beth, Benji and the rest of the family, we send our sympathy, love and prayers.. You have done a wonderful job taking care of Mrs. Cannon. Good job, indeed.
