

Mrs. Virginia Lemelin Roy

May 27, 1916 - November 30, 2014

Virginia Lemelin Roy, 98, passed away Nov 30 at Lila Doyle Nursing Home in Seneca, SC.

Born May 27, 1916 in Fairfield, Maine. Her parents were Herbert ["Pete"] Lemelin & Eva Vigue. Siblings were Paul & Raymond Lemelin. Both brothers pre-deceased Virginia in death. She married Ivan J Roy on June 19, 1937 in Fairfield, Maine. Ivan pre-deceased her on March 20, 2001. Her children: Theresa Hallee, [married Donald Hallee], Dr Robert Roy [pre-deceased], James Roy [pre-deceased], Jeannine Roy Standish, [married Dr. E. Myles Standish Jr.]. She attended local schools including Lawrence High School where she was very active in choral and often enjoyed the lead solos.

Virginia's early married years were filled with raising her four children in their beloved farmhouse on Benton Avenue. After raising the children, she and Ivan enjoyed the next 15 years together being Park Rangers in Baxter State Park in Millinocket, Maine.

Virginia had many hobbies. She loved to cook and bake, especially pies! She also loved sewing, gardening, braiding rugs and crocheting afghans. Besides her family she loved dancing the most. Even in her 98 years, her feet never stopped tapping to the sound of music. She was a member of The Foxy Ladies, a line-dancing group that performed all around the State of Maine.

She and Ivan also performed together around Maine as members of a square dancing group. She was a life-long member of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in Fairfield, Maine and a member of it's Daughters of Isabella.

Besides her two daughters, Virginia leaves nine grandchildren, 11 great children, several nieces, nephews, and many special friends.

Her daughters want to thank the many caring staff members at the “Inn of Seneca” and Lila Doyle Nursing Home for their professionalism and constant caring love for our mother. May you all remember her and the joy she had in teaching you how to speak a few sayings in French. One of her favorites: “Je suis heureuse ici”I am happy here!

Celebrations of Life Services to be determined at a later time.
