“ It is with great sadness that I have heard of the passing of Ms. Head. I am who I am today,i.e. a child of God's family all because of Vivian Head. Her remarkable love and strength of character in the face of adversity, some caused myself, has always shown me the higher path in which to choose.I loved her dearly and know without a doubt that she is in heaven at work straightening out any problems He may have. “ We were so saddened to hear that our dear friend, Vivian, had passed away. She was a lovely lady and such a wonderful mother to her children! I learned that when Sam, who was like one of my own, was growing up with our children, especially Bruce and Scott. Vivian would call and check up on Sam, and he would be at our house, right where he said he would be, playing basketball in our den downstairs (the den with the orange floor!) He and his sisters were good kids because they had such wonderful parents, especially their mother. We know that you will miss her, but you know that she is in heaven right now!! We love you all.##imported-begin##Bruce & Sheila Dixon##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for the loss of another great saint, Vivian Head. On July 20, she laid down her trophies and exchanged them for a crown. As I reflect upon her life, I see that her trophies were her belief in God the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; her church; her wonderful family; and her dedication to children in need. To each entity, she served gallantly. All would do well to emulate her positive qualities.

During this time of transition from her earthly presence to her heavenly being, my prayers of peace are with each member of her wonderful family. You mother and grandmother was a wonderful lady who showed unconditional love in the name of her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##John Kelley##imported-end##
