“ Mel was a wonderful lady with a big heart for people. She touched my life in many ways with her love for people and her willingness to share with those less fortunate.

She loved her Lord and Saviour and always welcomed the opportunity to participate in worship services at College Street Baptist Church.

She was a model of how we must respect our family and friends with unconditional love and support. She taught me much about the important things in life.

May GOd bless you as you adjust to life without our wonderful Mel.

“ It has been my pleasure to know sweet Mell all these years.I'll miss our talks, her sweet childlike smile and those beautiful eyes.Mell seemed to be put on this earth to serve others and took great pleasure in doing so.Now I would love to have seen her face when she entered into Heaven.I think of all the love she feels from our heavenly Father and all the glory and wonders she's seeing.
