“ Though it has been a few years since we have seen Vivian, we are so thankful for the sweet memories that we have of her. Vivian was always active in her church and the Beaverdam Baptist Association; in fact, Vivian was on the committee that had a part in bringing Fred here as Director of Missions. We will always remember Vivian leading music at Cheohee Baptist Church and her commitment to Jesus. She was a giant in the Christian world.

Her musical talents were endless because she did it with such heart felt love as she rejoiced in praising the lord thru her music that she loved so dearly . What a reunion is taking place in Heaven today . She will be greatly missed but I plan on seeing her again when the lord calls my name I'll be there .. Amen*
