“ I took care of Wanda when I worked at Lila Doyle and she was such a sweetheart. She would always call me “string bean” since I was so tiny but she was one of my favorites. She was always the light that filled the room. She will be deeply missed.

“ Darren and family, I am so sorry for this great loss! There is no one in the world like Wanda Reed. She was my first boss at Clemson University and quickly became a beloved friend. She always pointed out the positive in situations and always found the good in every person. My life is better because she was in it. I am so thankful for her and all the memories that I can recall as I miss her presence. The photo is a recent trip we took together to her hometown, Highlands, NC. She so enjoyed sharing about her hometown, all her special spots, and the people she loved! She is now pain free and with her beloved Ray. May God engulf you in His perfect peace and comfort and you walk through the days ahead. Darren, you were the apple of her eye! There was never a conversation we had without her bragging on you. You were a JOY in her life! God bless you and keep you. Kaye Golden

“ I thought Wanda belonged to me personally for the first several years of my life. We were together so much. She has always been near and dear to me. Wanda reached her final goals, seeing her Lord and Savior and meeting up with Ray. What a reunion! Darren, you have always been the apple of her eye. A real void will be in the lives of so many who knew Wanda. May God give you all comfort and the precious memories bring you smiles. Love y'all so very much.
