“ Wayne had that special way about him that made you feel good inside. His smile and laughter was infectious. His warm demeanor drew in everyone he met. His love for his family was so very evident in any opportunity he had to talk about you guys. His desire for others salvation and well being was always part of his prayer request. His positive approach in whatever he was doing made you want to be a part of it too. His love for kids and their opportunity to succeed was something he felt passionate about. Wayne seemed to just make things around him a little bit brighter. Thank you Edmonds family for sharing your husband, dad and pappy with the rest of us. Rick & Betsy Freeman
