“ Gladys, Jeffrey, and Mary you are in our thoughts and prayers. Many of the cousins growing up would gather at Mama Davis' house to play. We would go up in the barn loft and jump out. Of course our cousin Buddy declared that Dean pushed him out more than one time. We were young and had good times that children now can never experience. Dean was a good person and we will miss him but we know where he is. All our love to you all.
