“ Melinda and family, Clarence and I send our love and prayers to you. Although we did not know Bill well, we do know he was a loving husband and dad to you and Gerald. I remember seeing him occasionally at Pine Street School and how friendly he was. The story you told about the visit to Bill’s parents and the surprise you had when the three of you happened to be on the wrong street, wrong house, wrong family when you thought you were surprising the elder Maks family! The great storytelling talents you have made that a story to be shared far and wide. So glad you are near Gerald’s family. We miss you in Walhalla.
