“ (Uncle) Roy was one of a kind. He was kind, thoughtful, and respectful of his fellow man. He served our country well for a long time, and the experiences he gained while in service were life-changing. He loved his family deeply, and I am so glad that I got to know him as a part of that family. His delight upon seeing loved ones at reunions or family gatherings was priceless. He was never a man to suffer fools gladly (and he knew 'em when he saw 'em). Danny, our thoughts are with you; you have suffered a great loss but we know you are thankful that you had a such a wonderful man as your father. Blessings, Mary & Jerry Harvey
