Many great memories of and with "Red", especially when he would come to our softball games in Pickens back in the 80's. Also loved to talk to him about his beagles....His faith in Christ has secured his place in heaven!

“ A really good man and a wonderful friend to me and my family. He took my oldest son Kyle in like he was his own child and rabbit hunted with him for years showing him all the tricks... Those memories will always be enbeded in my mind and Kyle's as well.. We well all miss him dearly.
