I allways wanted to go hang out but it will have to be another time now. He had fine character and when I think of great childhood memories, he's in most them. “ I hadn't seen Bill in many years. We were childhood friends. I think the Taylor family and the Smith/Roehms were the biggest families besides the Barry's in that strip of Long Beach. We filled up the neighborhood. His sister Darla was in my grade. I was very saddened to hear the news. My condolences to all the Roehm family and the Smith Girls it is such a loss. My family is very sad to hear the news.

“ Bill always loved to be with people. It didn't matter if it was for a meal, a movie or a short visit. He was sweet and humble. He wasn't loud but he enjoyed a good laugh. I love him and will miss him. I will especially remember him on St. Patrick's Day, his birthday. He lives forever and I will be glad to see him again.###imported-begin##Dawn "Bebe"###imported-end##

“ I can't believe it was 47 years ago that Dad and Deva drove up with baby Bill, just a few months old, for the first of what would be annual trips to Indiana. Watching Bill, and later Steve and Dave, grow up would be a joyful experience for me, and I share in your deep sadness for Bill's passing. Bill, I'll miss you very much. “ As kids we always looked forward to Grandma and Grandpa Roehm driving in every year from California. Bill, Steve, and Dave, were always with them for the long ride. Grandpa always drove straight through. They drove the same gold color Buick every year. I think Grandpa always wanted to see how many years the car could make it. Uncle Bill would always go places with us when they came to Indiana. I remember shopping trips to Tell City. We had trips visiting some area caves. Every year included dinner at Rono. Our house was small so they stayed in a hotel. This was something to look forward to. We got to visit them there too and swim in the pool. Bill always had the best laugh. He had his own chuckle even when he just was having a conversation with you. He always smiled. He was easy to talk to and easy to visit with. I always wished that they lived near us. We never got to go to California to visit them. We always waited every year for the gold Buick to pull into the drive way. Bill, I have been praying that you had our Lord Jesus Christ in your heart. I know now that you did and we will one day see each other in eternity. Until then I will cherish the memories over the years and hear your laugh as you soar with the angels of Heaven.

God Bless

Love,
