“ William was a giant among men! His heart exceeded his body! He was the most generous, giving, honest, and sincere man!!!! I first met him as a “customer” of his auto repair business- BUT- after just a few minutes, he made me feel like a true friend! Then... just a very short time later, I needed his help again. My truck was down, and I commuted everyday to Atlanta for work, and William never hesitated to offer his personal vehicle so I could keep working, while he fixed my truck!!!! Wait! I say “offered”- he was ADAMANT over me taking his truck!!!! I tried to say, no..... I do commercial construction- so can't do that- but William almost pushed me into his truck- and said- “GO!, or I won't fix your truck”!!!! LOL what an amazing man!!!! As time went on, and our bond grew stronger, he made me feel like FAMILY!!! I will always love him, miss him and pray to God to one day thank him again!!!! My heart aches so bad for the family's loss!!!! Josh is such a great friend, and I hurt inside to wish this pain away for him (and all of his family!) May God hold home in his loving embrace until we all meet again !!
RIP, to a man that treated me like family, and is loved as much!!!!!!
