“ Daddy we done a lot of stuff together through the year's. We had some much fun on our fishing trips together, we could be sitting right beside you and you would be catching all the fish we could not even catch one. That was fun to watch people could throw their line in the same spot and still could not catch a fish. The best thing you ever showed me was had to be a Man, I learned how to do the right things and the wrong things in life. I will always Love you and I will never forget you.
