“ Father - Dad,

I know you know I loved you but words will never be enough to make up for all we didn't share. I always longed to know what it would have been like to grow up with you...would I have been a different person, I think so. I wish we could have shared so much more than we did. I know and understand why you let me go and I understand that you knew I would find you. I want to thank you for all you did give me, a wonderful second Mom that I will forever treasure and look out for; a brother I am so proud of and hope to know even better; aunts that I am thrilled to death to finally know; and most of all, for who I am inside, your daughter, for now and always...that is something that no one can ever take from me.

I love you, my Father, my Bud...always and forever you will be in my heart and mind.

Betty,

I am so sorry to hear about "Bud".

I know he will be missed by everyone especially all from the bowling center.

I hope this poem will give you some comfort.

Listen with Your Heart

Memories are a treasure time cannot take away

So may you be surrounded by happy ones today

May all the love and tenderness of golden years well spent

Come back today to fill your heart with beauty and content

And may you walk down MEMORY LANE and meet the one you love

For while you cannot see him he'll be watching from above

And if you trust your dreaming your faith will make it true

And if you listen with your heart he'll come and talk with you

So for his sake be happy and show him that his love

Has proven strong and big enough to reach down from above

And you will never walk alone when Memory's Door swings wide

For you'll find that your beloved is always by your side.##imported-begin##Avelene

The fight is over, the battle is won - you have the victory - a job well done. We will miss your smile, your optimism, your instruction but most of all, your presence at the bowling center.
